Why women reject men... and what to do about it? &nbsp; After a long chase at last, you managed to approach the woman you desired. You were having lots of ideas, and had planned for some superb outing with that woman in advance. While you had thought so much, it ended up in rejection at the very first interaction. This is unfair, but that is how things are more often! Certainly you will be eager to know why women reject men, and trust me, there is no end to that list. In this article we will go through some of the most common usual reasons why women reject men. &nbsp; In case you are being rejected by any woman, questions come in your mind whether there were any mistakes from your end, or the lady is nothing but bad-mannered. However, if we take it for granted that she is impolite, there still is a reason behind the rejection. While talking about why women reject men, we must discuss about someone's personality. There are lots of women who are attracted only by your looks. There is always a chance of rejection if you are not good looking because the first impression depends on your look. In addition you also need to remember that if you are selected only for your looks, woman is not perfect for you. &nbsp; Second reason happens to be wrong approach, or way of expressing their feelings from most men. It can be seen in several men that they just go directly to the women, and bring out their feelings. There should be a proper way of approaching a woman instead of coming to the point directly. While you are about to start talking, you should not be casual. It is better to move slowly, first build a friendship with the lady, let her know about you, and then go for the approach. Keep always one thing in your mind – there is no other relation better than friendship. &nbsp; As we were talking about the ways to approach a woman, it indicates the proper timing. Most men do have a bad habit of approaching the wrong woman at the wrong time. While the lady is busy with some other work or thoughts, it is totally useless to approach her at that time. She will just get an opportunity to reject you without any proper reason. This is one of the most crucial reasons why women reject men. Do not ever be desperate while approaching a woman, as it will only make her run away. Never show her that you need her, instead represent your power and dominance. &nbsp; In addition, you need to have the quality of keeping a woman amused for a long time. Along with that, you need to talk properly while interacting with her. Using unnecessary words to impress a woman will only go against you. Be a good orator as well as an appreciative listener. You cannot expect someone to keep listening to you.
